DOCTOR

Honey, your Lola had a T.I.A. during dialysis, and with her kidney failure...she has decided to stop pursuing the treatment.

HONEY

No! Why is my Lola giving up? She needs dialysis or..

DOCTOR

-Your Lola, has been incredibly strong Honey. Aside from her Kidney Failure, she has survived a stroke, is diabetic, and has high blood pressure..she has been through a lot...and wants to spend the rest of her days back home with the family...

HONEY

How long does she have?

DOCTOR

We're looking at roughly 2 weeks to 2 months...

HONEY

Oh my god...

DOCTOR

This is her wish..to be surrounded by family.
